

Scandinavian lifestyle, lightness and happiness

DEPOT gives you that autumn “hygge feeling”

Niedernberg, August 26, 2021 - It doesn't take much. Some soft sheepskin. A pillow to snuggle up to. As well as a fluffy blanket to warm those cold feet. A mellow candlelight that doesn't just warm the heart. And hey presto, the basic “hygge feeling” recipe is ready. This can be varied and expanded as you wish. With soft fabrics. Light and natural colors. And enchantingly beautiful decoration.

Scandinavian lifestyle and comfort embodies the great contentment of the coziness within your own four walls - and it's ready to move in with us again this autumn. As things get increasingly darker, cooler and more rainy outside, DEPOT has everything you need for that “hygge feeling” inside. A little foretaste of complete coziness, ideal for time spent as a couple or with the whole family.

Cozy and comfortable - that's hygge

When the Danes or Norwegians say: That's “hygge” - it means “comfortable”, “pleasant” or “cozy”. You can't go wrong with our large, caramel-colored Sheepskin rug 100 percent sheep wool. As a splash of on-trend color at the foot of the bed or the lounge sofa, or draped over an armchair or bench, this exquisite sheepskin feels great underfoot in the colder weeks and months. In terms of its look and feel, the Sheepskin chair throw. And also the well-rounded, Decorative teddy fur creates that overall warm “hygge feeling”.

It's perfect for Hanging seat, large couch areas as well as relaxing on the day bed: With the cushions and cushion covers like Knitted or House - two examples from the huge DEPOT range, which contains a variety of hygge style cushions in different colors and sizes. Where there is a pillow, you're sure to find a snuggle blanket close by. Especially when it exudes as much coziness as the natural-colored model Knitted stripe. . Naturalness is also a defining feature of that “hygge feeling”.

A love for the little things in design

Pure naturalness, as embodied the Ruscus dried flower with its impressive length of 50 centimeters. Decorate the new vases of the leading decoration and furnishing specialist stylishly with other flowers or grasses such as pampas grass, an example is the blue-green Glass vase bottle. Around thing is the Cotton wreath. A love of detail in design, which is also brought to life with big effect by the small animal pendants Fox and Squirrel. The diverse range of natural decorative items also helps create that unmistakable “hygge feeling”, from Pumpkin Nature to Wooden apple. What can these be served on? DEPOT also has just what you need here too - the large Decorative tray made of 100 percent mango wood is in great demand. Naturally beautiful. And of course, beautifully natural.
